

The Twenty-second Sunday of Pentecost

Holy Eucharist, Rite II

October 25, 2026

8:00 & 10:30 a.m.

THE EPISCOPAL
CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION

Good Morning!

Good Morning!
We're so glad you chose to be here at Resurrection today. Whether you're here for the first time or are a life-long member, Resurrection is a hopeful, healing, transformation-minded kind of place, a place where everyone is welcome and can grow their relationship with God and with one another.

If you are here for the first time (or if you just haven't gotten around to it yet), please fill out a pew card and put it in the offering plate to let us know you were here. To receive our weekly email bulletin, be sure to include your email address. Also, let us know if you would like to connect with our parish life and ministries; we're happy to help you find your spot.

Our services follow the Book of Common Prayer (BCP), the red book in your pew rack. If you'd prefer to use the book to follow the service, BCP pages are noted. Unless otherwise noted, our hymns are from The Hymnal 1982, the blue book in the pew rack. Hymns marked "S-xxx" refer to Service music, found in the very front of the book. Service music precedes the regular congregational hymns. For example, S-280 (The Gloria) is found before Hymn #1.

Holy Eucharist, Rite II

Prelude

Herr Christ, der einig Gottes Sohn - Johann Michael Bach
(organ chorale)

Entrance Hymn

O God, our help in ages past Hymnal 680

The Word of God

All standing, the Celebrant says: BCP 355

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant says the Collect for Purity.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Gloria (Spoken at 8 / Sung at 10:30) Hymnal S-280

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,

We prepare for our time together.
We take our places and allow the peaceful quiet to center and calm us.

The 8 a.m. service is spoken, while the 10:30 a.m. service is choral.

The bold portions are the parts the congregation says together. Remember that liturgy means "worshiping together." It is important that we make our responses in a good, strong voice.

The first prayer, said by the celebrant, is the Collect for Purity. A collect is a particular form of prayer, which names some attribute of God or something God has done, asks for something specific, and then closes with praise to God.

The service continues now with a Song of Praise. This song centers the service on the God we are gathered to praise in our worship.

you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day BCP 234

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Day is written to go along with both the seasons of the church year and the readings for the day. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the Scripture for the day.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: Deuteronomy 34:1-12

Lector A reading from Deuteronomy

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants'; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there." Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord's command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 90:1-6, 13-17 BCP 717

Lector We will read the Psalm responsively by half verse.

1 Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.
2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the land and the earth were born,
from age to age you are God.
3 You turn us back to the dust and say,
"Go back, O child of earth."
4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past and like a watch in the night.
5 You sweep us away like a dream;
we fade away suddenly like the grass.
6 In the morning it is green and flourishes;
in the evening it is dried up and withered.
13 Return, O Lord; how long will you tarry?
be gracious to your servants.
14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us
and the years in which we suffered adversity.
16 Show your servants your works and your splendor to their children.
17 May the graciousness of the Lord our God be upon us;
prosper the work of our hands;
prosper our handiwork.

We respond to each reading: the Psalm is our response to the Old Testament, in the second service, the hymn is our sung response to the Epistle (the second reading), and the sermon and creed are our response to the Gospel.

Meaning literally "a letter," the name Epistle was given to the first of the two New Testament readings in the Eucharist. The majority of these passages are taken from the epistolary literature of the New Testament, such as the letters of Paul to communities of Christians in various places.

The Epistle: 1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

Lector A reading from Paul's fist letter to the Thessalonians

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn Please stand as able.

Jesu, Jesu, Fill us with Your Love (vv. 1-2) Hymnal 602

We stand to indicate the importance we place of Jesus' words and actions. The Gospel book comes into the midst of the people and all turn toward the reader.

The Gospel Lesson: Matthew 22:34-46 All stand.

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet"'?

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn
Jesu, Jesu, Fill us with Your Love (vv. 3-4) Hymnal 602

Sermon Rev. Mary Davis

A Sermon or a shorter teaching called a homily follows the Gospel. Since 1549, a sermon has been required at every Eucharist service. Originally the entire service was viewed as our confession of faith, but since the sixth century the church has recited the Nicene Creed at the Eucharist. The word creed comes from the Latin credo for "I believe."

The Nicene Creed BCP 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our prayers change each week, along with the lectionary. Please feel free to add those on your heart, either silently or aloud, at the appropriate place.

The Prayers of the People Form VI BCP 392

Please assume a posture of prayer, whether standing, kneeling, or sitting. The leader and people pray responsively.

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

For all people in their daily life and work
For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world,
For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;
For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;
For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;
For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, our Presiding Bishop; and Brian, our Bishop; and for all bishops and other ministers.
For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation,

We pray especially for Patricia; Stella Fiebke; Jennifer & Paul; Ingrid & Emma C.; Bob & Jan; JackieButtinelli & family, and all who are in pain or distress.

Gracious and loving God, give the members of our Search Committee wisdom and understanding as they strive to discern your will. Grant them most importantly openness to your Holy Spirit, the gift of honesty to speak the truth in love, the willingness to hear the ideas of others, and the ability to see your light shining on the path ahead through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The people may add their petitions or thanksgivings, silently or aloud.

Hear us, Lord;
For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.
We will exalt you, O God our King;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

Celebrant: O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession of Sin — BCP 359

The Officiant says to the people:

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Officiant and People together, all kneeling:

The Confession of Sin helps us examine our hearts and hear of God's forgiveness. We ask God's forgiveness for things done and things left undone.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Officiant says:

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace BCP 360

All stand. The Celebrant says to the people:

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Peace, is a very ancient way for people to greet one another. When the celebrant says: "The Peace of the Lord be always with you," everyone responds: "And also with you." Then we share God's peace with one another.

Blessings of Birthdays & Anniversaries BCP 830

The Holy Communion

The Celebrant says:

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God. Ephesians 5:2

The Liturgy of the Table
The second part of the liturgy moves to the

Offertory

Herzlich lieb hab ich dich, o Herr — Johann Gottfried Walther (organ chorale)

The Celebrant invites the people's offerings.

Spoken at 8:00 a.m.

Celebrant All things come of thee, O Lord;
People And of thine own have we given thee.

Doxology (Sung at 10:30 a.m.)(v. 3) Hymnal 380

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host:
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving
Eucharistic Prayer A

The Celebrant says:

Sursum Corda (Lift Up Your Hearts) (Spoken at 8 / Sung at 10:30)

The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds:

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People

Sanctus (Spoken at 8 / Sung at 10:30) Hymnal S-125

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Table. It is based on Jewish fellowship meals, particularly the Passover observance. We begin with the Offertory. We place the bread and the wine, as well as our collected offerings, on the altar in thanksgiving for all God has provided.

In this season, we use Eucharistic Prayer A, from the Book of Common Prayer, p. 361.

When we gather together we remember Jesus. Through repeating the words and actions of Jesus' last meal with his disciples, we ourselves join the story and make it our own. We don't just watch the drama or listen to it unfold, but we enter the story as we, too, take the bread and wine and eat and drink.

From the Latin for "holy," the Sanctus of a hymn of adoration and praise based on the song of the seraphim as recorded in Isaiah's vision of the Lord in the year King Uzziah died.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

The people stand or kneel, and the celebrant continues.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The "mystery of faith" echoes 1 Timothy 3:9, and has been used in Eucharistic Prayers since the seventh century.

The Celebrant continues:

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

The Great Amen is the only word in our Book of Common Prayer in all

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN. (Spoken at 8 / Sung at 10:30) Hymnal S-146

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread BCP 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.
A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Fraction Hymn (Spoken at 8 / Sung at 10:30) Hymnal S-163

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world;
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world;
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world;
grant us peace.

The Celebrant says:

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Communion of the Faithful

The Bread and the Cup are given to the communicants with these words:

capital letters. It is the people's affirmation of all that has gone before and has been a practice since the second century.

This prayer of Jesus was given to his disciples as an example of how they should pray. The phrase "Lord's Prayer" is not used in the New Testament. It is similar to Jewish prayers: It begins with an address to God the Father, continues with petitions which ask God to act in a way so as to achieve his purposes, and then has petitions asking for God's help.

Receiving Communion
All are welcome at God's table. Hold out your hands and you will be given the bread. Gluten-free wafers are available by request.

Wine is available from the common chalice, as well as from individual cups.

If you prefer NOT TO PARTAKE from the chalice, please indicate this by crossing your hands atop one another in front of you.

You have fully received communion if you receive either the bread or the wine.

The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven. Amen.
The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation. Amen.

Communion Hymn

Where Charity and Love Prevail Hymnal 581

Post Communion Prayer

After Communion, the Celebrant says:

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People: BCP 365

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing: a priestly blessing first began with bishops in the fourth century then spread in practice by priests when the bishop was not present.

Dismissal: As the celebration ends, we are charged to "Go in peace to love and serve the Lord." Therefore, the Eucharist is not an exclusive gathering that separates us from the world but a challenge to reach beyond our own church to the world around us in thanksgiving for all God's good and gracious gifts.

We Go Into God's World

The Blessing

The priest blesses the people.

Recessional Hymn

Take My Life, and Let It Be Hymnal 707

The Dismissal BCP 366

Celebrant Let us bless the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

TODAY'S ART

You will notice that the pencil sketch of Resurrection replaced our usual art on the cover today.

This is a small time-saving measure for Bonnie while we are without a permanent administrator: it takes time to find that perfect piece of art for a given Sunday, to find out which passage is being featured in the sermon, and to get the appropriate information/credits.

So - enjoy the seasonal photos. Feel free to share great pictures of the church if you have some on your camera.

Also please let Bonnie know whether you have a strong preference to return to artwork when we do hire for the position. We can use photos or pencil sketches indefinitely - or return to the former art. I'm asking for your feedback if you feel strongly, one way or the other. Thanks!

Send your feedback or photos to: office@episcopalloudon.com.
